

FYLDE DECORATIVE AND FINE ARTS SOCIETY.

Consent Form for permission to use photographs, videos and artwork of Children and Young People.

Fylde Decorative and Fine Arts Society [Fylde DFAS] often takes photographs of children/young people participating in its activities and uses these and artwork in publicity and for fund raising. The work or images may appear in publications such as the Society's Newsletter, NADFAS Reviews, press [local and national] and on the Society's and NADFAS's web sites.

It is important that the Society is compliant with legislation related to copyright and the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006 and will follow the guidance in accordance with our Working with Children and Vulnerable Adults Policy available on our website www.fyldefas.org.uk.

Fylde DFAS will take all steps necessary to ensure that images/artwork are used solely for the purposes intended. However if you become aware that they are being used inappropriately you should inform us immediately. If at any stage you wish to withdraw your permission, please let us know and we will remove the images from our website and any media we control.
