Vanessa Bell was a founding and leading member of the Bloomsbury Group. Over her lifetime, she produced some of the most important art of the 20th century. Despite her artistic achievements, and despite being the 'matriarch' of the Bloomsbury Group, her art and biography are often overshadowed by the international renown of Roger Fry (her lover), by the cutting-edge art theory of Clive Bell (her husband), by the paintings of Duncan Grant (her soul mate) and by the books of Virginia Woolf (her sister).

The lecture will place Vanessa Bell's paintings – which travelled from gentle impressionism to avant-garde abstraction to a celebration of 19th century European masters – within the context of both her own appreciation of modern art and the tangled web of her relationships, including the setbacks she endured in later life.
