SAIL, SWEAT & SPARKLE

We are delighted to welcome Brian back to the Arts Society Fylde. Brian is an accomplished self-taught artist and an experienced lecturer much in demand worldwide both as a cruise lecturer and as a lecturer for The Arts Society.

PART 1: TRANSATLANTIC LINERS

First, forget modern hassle; sit back, relax and SAIL in style by luxury transatlantic liner in the golden days of the Blue Riband. Including rare archive interior photographs illustrating how changing tastes were met, from the elegance of the French chateau to 'streamline modern'.

PART 2: ART IN NEW YORK

After coffee, we are in exciting New York at the end of the 19th century. We see how Ashcan School of American painters depicted the daily lives of the labourers whose SWEAT helped to build the city, and a new way of painting showed the realities of the struggle to live, work and survive.

PART 3: TIFFANY & CO

After lunch, time to SPARKLE, Brian relates the tale of how Tiffany and Co started with a loan of US$1000 and a small bric-a-brac shop and grew into today's iconic business, on the way redesigning the now lost interior of the White House, developing the manufacture of exquisite glass and providing the diamonds worn by Audrey Hepburn in "Breakfast at Tiffany's".

Brian Healey would love anyone to bring along any old brochures from the 50s & 60s to illustrate part 1 of his lecture, and any pieces of Tiffany, antique or modern, that they have for part 3.
